Girls are new. Girls are up and down and all over in between. Do you know any girls? Do they know you? Girls have addictions and girls bat their eyelashes to get what they want for free. There's abstinent girls, did you know that? Girls calling their friends females, bitches, cunts, and whores to reclaim the words, that have been used against them. Where do girls fit into the scene? They don't.

They ARE the scene and the scene is them, they allow men to exist here gracefully because deep down they are all kind and benevolent beings. Thank you, girls, some boys do like to DJ and sometimes they can take care of it well. Fuck you for everything still but some of the girls have boyfriends that are nice. This isn't about you. Girls like bass music.

Girls like punk and hardcore

Girls like screaming and crying and biting and hitting and throwing. I think if I said this out loud maybe some people would get offended.
Because even though it's 2023, and pride is a normal occurrence, and there's not as much asking women to make sandwiches, there still are remnants, and there still are people who would rather see the shitty dude band than the talented female band. So here we are, seeing it through to the finish line for the girls who had the pussy to start it off. We are young and we don't know anything at all but the fire and desire was ignited by our ancestors.

Can  Peace

The state calls you all to rest your anxieties. People of peace have collected and people of peace will prevail. Go into the world and be what you wish to see. You are inspired. The others
follow. Spread kindness, love, and
joy. We are how we treat other people.

THANK YOU!
